Josh Billings on Spring and Biles.

Spring came this year mutch in usual. Hail natmons virgin, 5,000 years old and upwards, ale and harty of leal, welcum tew York state and parts adjacent.

Now the birds jaw, now the cattle holler, ow the pigs skream, now the geese warble, ow the cats sigh, and natur is frisky; the arnest pissmire, the virtuous bedbug, and the ubby cockroach are singing "Yankee Doole" and "Coming thru the Rhi." Now may e seen the musketeer, that gray-outlined ritter ov destiny, solitary and alone, examining his last year's bill, and now may be heard, with the naked ear, the shanghigh bawling in he barn-yard.

Kittens in the doorway, and puppys on the green, neighbor chats with neighbor, and the unguid urchin creeps listless toward the chool. These things are all fust-rate in their place, but spring brings pesky biles, and plants them carelessly, sometimes among the maiden's charms, and sometimes among the young men's. I kan tork like a prechure poet about biles just now, for I have one in full bloom growing on me, almost ready to pick, az big az an egg-plant, and az full ov anguish az a broken heart.

Biles are the sorest things ov their size on rekord, and az kross tew touch az a setting hen, ov a dog with a fat bone. Biles always pick out the handyest place on yoe bodily tew build their nest, and if you undertake to brake them up it only makes them mad, and takes them longer to hatch out. There aint no sutch thing az coaxing nor driving them aways. They are like an impudent bedbug; they won't move till they hav got their fill.

Biles are az old az religion. Job, the profit, waz the fust champion ov biles, and he iz currently reported tew hav had more biles, and more pashunce, to the square inch, than enny one, two very smart things to be found in enny man.

Biles and pashunce! I should pa sooth think ov mixing courting and musketeers together for luxury.

I hav got a grate deal more faith than I hav pashunce, but I haint got enuff faith in biles. I wouldn't trust a bile, even on one ov mi boots.

I think faith iz a better artikle than pashunce. Faith sumtimes iz an evidence of brains, and pashunce quite often iz only numbness, but I think, in these smooth shod times, it iz not best to hav too mutch capital invested in either ov them.

But I am out ov the road. I must git back onto biles agin.

If a fellar begins tew wonder, and git out ov the straight and narrow path, it is curious how quick he will begin tew go tew the d—l. Biles are very sassy; sumtimes when yer go to set down they will get between yer and the chair; that is one evidence ov their ill breeding, and I had one once plant herself on the frunt end uv mi nose, which waz a most remarkable piece of bad manners, for there iz no room on mi noze enny more for a bile, for when it iz even ebb tide with mi nose, it covers half mi face. Biles are sed tew be healthy, and I guess they am, for I hav seen sum healthy old biles, az big az a hornet's nest and az full of stings. I always want to be healthy—I am willing to pay the highest market price for a good deal ov healthy—but if I had to hav 2 biles on me awl the time in order to be healthy, I should think that I was building the market.

There iz one more smart thing about biles; they are like twins, they hardly ever run singly, and I have known them to throw double sixes.

What! twelve biles on one man at a time! This is wus than fighting bumble bees with your summer clothes on.

Biles are sed, by the educated and correct spellers of the land, to be an operashen ov nature tew get rid ov sumthing which she wants to spare. This is without doubt, but it don't strike me az being a very polite thing in nature tew shuv oph her biles onto other folks. I say let everybody take care ov their own biles.

But say all yer kan about biles, call them all the mean names current among fishmongers, revile, persecute and spit on them, groan, grin and swear at them when they visit ye, let them ov the worst kind on them if yer pleeze, there iz a time in their career when they concentrate all the pathos ov joy that a man has on hand to spend, and that iz—when they bust!

This iz bliss, glory, and revenge on the half-shell. A man leans back in reklined comfort, az innocent and az limber az a mermaid. This pays for the fretful nights and nervous days, while the bile has been hatching; this shows us what it iz to grin and bear it—this shows what it is to be biled, and wrung out, and hung up to dry. This iz the calm after the storm, the wedding ov pashunce and joy, this iz the chattering ov hope, the mystik yu-yu, days I don't this is bein' on yure v—s.

Nasby writes: The Democracy are in a country a man in that happy state of mind at this time they ought to be. The Ship of State is at the mercy ov the Government, and his subordinates are at the head uv the Departments, but not as many openins as they ought to, for one ov the reduckshuns uv the expenses uv the Government is death to us. We must groan, but we must not be unpatriotic; clerks and army officers. Had the Government put a garrison into every town az we proffode it wood, and cood we hav had this summer, in addition, the potater rot, weevil, frost, locusts, floods, drouths, yeller fever and cholery, we mite hav stood some chance of carrying the fall elecshons, for the people wood hav murmured. But so long as everything is smooth they laff at us when we insist upon a change, and say, jeeringly, "Go up, bald head!"

A liquor dealer who, whilst he was living in Boston, sold many thousand dollars worth of the ardent to two Belfast citizens, and who now lives in Belfast himself, has had a dispute with them about the account. They have now sued him for the recovery of all the money paid in those days, and attached his property, and under the Maine law will probably get it.

A college student, in his recitation to the professor of Latin, met with the sentence, "Canamus major paulo" (let us sing a little longer). Instead of construing it properly, the reckless and daring chap gravely read, "Let us cane Major Paul!"

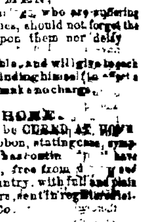
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, sunken and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid misery thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late, and send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who boldly advertise, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse, this solitary vice, or depraved sexual, or perverted habits, practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by the special medical measures, viz.: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rushing of leaves and rattling of chariots, confusion almost the blind, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, bloated intellect, loss of confidence, difficulty in approaching strangers, a inability to form or keep friendships, a disqualification for society, loss of memory, pimples and various eruptions about the face, forked tongue, foetid breath, cough, consumption, night sweats, nervousness, and frequently insanity. If reader be not benefited should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new method, on the mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove conclusively to him that the unscrupulous of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of those fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has existed, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from observation or curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and [illegible], who, with horns sworn-to certificates, dupe the [illegible]. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and [illegible] too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, you will not find their Medical Institutes [illegible], but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you [illegible] and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know what and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive any by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients, testimonials, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy personally who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, (Private Entrance on Cum[illegible]) San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform [illegible] that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

WASHINGTON GUARD'S PICNIC.—The annual excursion and picnic of the Washington Guard was celebrated yesterday, in the excellent style which characterizes all the public doings of the company. The excursion was made to Pleasant Grove—the grounds used by the Turn Verein for the last two years. The steamer Senator made frequent trips between the city and the Grove, carrying at each trip considerable numbers of excursionists. The number present on the grounds at any one time, was probably 1,000, though a greater number than that visited the grounds during the day. The Mechanics' Brass Band went upon the ten o'clock boat and remained for the last return boat at 7 P. M., contributing by their excellent music, greatly to the pleasures of the day. Dancing, on the platform, commenced shortly after the first arrival, and was kept up, with no intermission, except for lunch, till within a few minutes of the last return trip of the Senator, and we do not remember ever to have seen the dancing portion of a picnic party enjoy themselves more highly than on this occasion. Everything was well regulated upon the floor, the music was first rate and everything went as merry as any heart could wish. Beside the dancing, there were games of croquet, swinging and amusements of other sorts for those who did not care for tripping the light fantastic toe; so that nobody could have enjoyed themselves by cultivating misery, had they tried ever so hard. In the matter of lunch the Guard and their friends managed admirably. There were any number of elegant lunches set out, to which the unprovided were cordially invited; the only difficulty in lunching being in the perplexity of deciding which of the pressing invitations to accept. The precautions taken by the Guard to exclude all doubtful characters from the grounds, were eminently successful, and accordingly the exercises were not interrupted by any unpleasant occurrence whatever. The last of the party returned at 7 o'clock, after a day of high enjoyment, and the general verdict was that the Washington Guard are just the boys to do up the excursion and picnic in tip-top style.

THE LAST NIGHT.—Messrs. Vinson and Barry received a very handsome compliment last evening, in the very full attendance upon their benefit. All the front part of the house was crowded. The two plays presented were received with flattering applause. At the conclusion of "Grimaldi," there was a prolonged call for Mr. Vinson, Barry and Mrs. Bates, in response to which they appeared before the curtain, and Mr. Vinson made a very neat acknowledgement of the favor shown him and Mr. Barry. The farce of "Wedlock is a Ticklish Thing," was applauded enthusiastically. It will be repeated again to-night on the occasion of Mrs. Bird's benefit.

RECORDER'S COURT.—There were only four cases before the Recorder yesterday, as follows.

City vs. Wm Husband; drunk and disorderly, paid $2 50, and was discharged.

City vs. G. M. Crary; drunk and lying on the sidewalk; fined $5 and costs; unable to pay and was sent up for five days.

State vs. James Dougherty; contempt of court; paid costs of arrest and was discharged.

State vs. Wm. Husband, defacing a building; fined $5 and costs—paid.

CRIME.—Yesterday was a remarkably quiet day in Portland in all respects. A large number of people were out of town, and the streets at times almost presented a Sunday appearance. Business of all kinds it cannot be denied, is dull in Portland at present. This is partly owing to the stringency in the money market, and better times are as sure to succeed as the present pressure was to follow the inflation lately with throughout the country.

STONE LAID.—The corner stone of the Zion M. E. Church was laid yesterday at 2 P. M. Quite a number of clergymen were present, and assisted in the ceremony. The attendance was good considering the hour, and we learn that a reasonably large collection to aid in defraying the expenses of building the church was taken up. The Portland people have shown a commendable energy and liberality in raising funds to establish a house of worship for themselves in Portland.

A BENEFIT.—This evening Mrs. Bella Bird, well and favorably known to the theater goers in Portland, will have a complimentary benefit at Oro Fino Theater. Her talents as well as the lovers of the drama during the past season fully entitle her to the high estimate in which she is held by the public, and we predict will, insure her a full house this evening. Special attention is called to the [illegible]

R. G. Sneath & Co have an article in the [illegible] which for family use is certainly a very desirable [illegible]. It is called desiccated codfish, and is [illegible] divested of bone and skin. Their obliging agent [illegible] kindly offered us a box for trial, but our family [illegible] fond of codfish, and, besides, remembering that we have no family, we are not able to speak of its merits from an actual test.

THE WAR.—We learn that the preliminary examination of some of the parties concerned in late shooting affray at Vancouver was commenced yesterday. A number appeared on either side and the day was occupied in taking the testimony on behalf of the prosecution. The examination of all the parties charged with the crime of the law in this case will probably occupy several days.

THE FUTURE.—The Commercial says: A private telegram was received from R. R. Thompson, Esq., which states that he and family had arrived in safety at Cedar Bluff, Iowa, on the 26th of May. They were five days from Umatilla to Ogden by coach, and four days from there to the Bluff. All this stood the fatigues of the journey well, and were in fine spirits.

STOCK.—We learn that about ten days ago two men came from California with $31,000 to expend in buying stock, took a tour through the valley and bought all the stock they wanted returned to this city, shipped it by rail and went back to San Francisco. Oregon ought to have stock to supply such customers as these.

TRADE.—Notwithstanding the general complaint of dull times, the wharf at the lower end of the city is crowded with very large quantities of which is awaiting shipment to the interior. A considerable amount of wool of this year's clip has been brought to this City by the up river boats, for export.

POLICE COURT.—Before J. Work, Esq., J. P., W. C. Spaulding vs. Spaulding & Cline; civil action to recover $200, for breach of contract; jury trial; verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of one dollar. Bronaugh & Bybee for plaintiff. B. Killan for defendant. Motion for new trial allowed.

FIRST STREET.—The contractor to improve Yamhill street has begun the work in good earnest. The proposed improvement extends from First street to Seventh. The [illegible] of side walks of the ordinary width and a plank roadway sixteen feet wide.

DEATH.—The following telegram was received here last evening:

SALEM, Oregon, June 3d.

To A. B. MEACHAM—Mr. Huntington died at half past [illegible] P. M. (Signed) C. S. WOODWORTH.

ASSOCIATION.—We learn from the Commercial that the [illegible] of this city are taking steps to form an association for the purpose of self-protection, and for the purpose of [illegible] rules for the government of those engaged in the trade.

FESTIVAL.—The ladies of the Congregational church will give a strawberry and ice cream festival at the Washington Guard's armory on Monday evening, June 7th, to which everybody desiring to enjoy a few hours is cordially invited.

FIRE.—We learn that the excursionists by the last boat from the Picnic grounds yesterday, saw a house on fire a short distance above the brewery, near the Macadamized road. We were unable to ascertain the particulars.

RACE.—There will be a trotting race over the White House Track, on to-morrow afternoon, mile heats, two best in three, for $100 aside. Mr. Smiley names bay mare, Carrie, Mr. Welsh names sorrel mare, Georgia.

GRADING.—We notice that some parties have opened the bank on Columbia street, between Fourth and Fifth, to the public by tearing down the fence which the Street Commissioner had erected at the order of the Council.

CLAIM.—The City Auditor in his report to the Common Council on printing omitted to state that during the last three years about $3,000 in coin has been paid for work which never before cost much over $400 a year.

CHEAP FARE.—Everybody can go to the camp-meeting at Fort Hill, W. T., at a very reasonable rate. The [illegible] is now in progress, and the boats carry passengers all the way for four bits.

ARRIVAL.—The Continental brought up over three hundred tons of general merchandise. The vast quantities piled up on the wharf seems but little like the dull times so much complained of.

FIRE.—An error occurred in the Common Council [illegible] as published by us yesterday morning, in regard to the monthly report of the Recorder. The receipts for May were $161, instead of $61.

STREETS IMPROVED.—The City Council proposes to improve the following streets: Morrison, from First to Front and Main from Front to Twelfth, by grading, laying sidewalks and plank roadway.

PATENTS.—George W. Hubart, of Silverton, has received a patent for a machine for stuffing horse collars. J. W. Lewis, of Oregon City, has received a patent for a gang plow. These patents were issued on the 18th May.

WORK.—We are engaged in making substantial improvements on Oak st. The lower portion of the city is rather going ahead of the southern in regard to street improvements.

THE RIOTS.—Capt. Lemuel Lyon, of the Dalles, lately Vice and Japanese Consul, made us a call yesterday. He was on his way to his post of duty.

WILL CONVENE.—The County Court of Multnomah County will convene on Monday, the 7th inst., and the U. S. District Court, on Monday, the 14th.

REVOLUTION—IN THE WASH-TUB.—Matters intrinsically mean and repulsive sometimes affect us largely the well being of communities as to assume an aspect of dignity. What more insignificant than the wash tub and soap suds? Yet we are about to allude to a matter in this humble branch of social well being which, considered in the light of results, is entitled to all the dignity and circumstance of a leading article in the British Columbian. It is [illegible] the spirit of a trade "puff" than in the interest of the public that we take the liberty of introducing to the candid and careful attention of our readers KANE'S IMPERIAL CONDENSED SOAP. We consume annually 400,000 pounds of imported soap. Assume that one half of that quantity passes to the east of the Cascade Range, and pays in freight, toll and bridge tolls, 15 cents per pound. This charge alone makes the enormous sum of $30,000. Fifteen pounds of Kane's Imperial Condensed Soap is fully equal to one hundred pounds of the article in general use. Consequently if Kane's Soap took the place of the ordinary article, the community in the interior alone would save annually just $24,000. It will thus be seen what an immense saving to the consumer in the interior would result from the use of Kane's Soap; for, be it remembered that the calculation does not embrace the difference in freight before reaching the Colony but merely the internal transit charges. Startling as these figures are, the estimate of the advantages of Kane's Soap is by no means confined within these bounds. "Time is money" is a proverb pre-eminently applicable to all articles, and the saving in using this soap is even greater in labor than in cash. To the hard working miner who repairs to the cabin tired and weary, and returns to his toils by break of day the old fashioned process of rubbing his clothes clean once a week must be peculiarly distasteful. And after all, they are not clean! But with Kane's Soap all is changed. All that the miner has to do is to put his clothes to soak with the least bit of soap, change the water next morning rinse them out in fresh water and hang them out to dry. By this simple process he will not only have them free from all impurity that ordinary soap with the usual rubbing would remove, but they will be completely free from grease, pitch, tar and all those substances so difficult to remove by ordinary washing processes. Nor are these the only advantages the soap offers to the miner. In starting out on a prospecting expedition, a small bar of Kane's Soap will do more service than half a pack of the common article. These advantages are not, of course, confined to the miner, or to any particular locality, but they are more palpable in the case of persons far from the seaboard. The advantages of Kane's Soap in sea faring life are very great, as it does its work well with salt water. In short, whether for ordinary domestic use, for the miner, away up in the mountain features, or on the great deep, this soap must commend itself to all. One pound of it, simply dissolved in water will make four gallons of excellent soft soap, and its effects in cleaning floors and woodwork are almost [illegible]. These statements are not mere assertion. The article has been tried in this as well as other communities, and testimony is uniform and strong. There can be no mistake about it. The women bless it, and the bachelors pronounce it the best substitute for a wife.—Daily British Columbian, May 27th.

A distinguished Methodist Minister and prominent Temperance Lecturer once remarked that go where he would, from one end of the country to the other, he hardly ever failed to find PLANTATION BITTERS, and while he condemned the practice of using these Bitters too freely, he could not conscientiously say that he would discard them from the side-board, for he had himself experienced beneficial results from their use, and that from a long and close observation, he was convinced that when used moderately, and as a medicine exclusively they were all that was recommended. At the same time he warned his hearers not to pull the cork too often, for they were far too pleasant a tonic to trifle with.

All those who think it would have a tendency to wake up the people of the Eastern States to realize the fact that there is such a place as Oregon on the Pacific Slope, and that not only large cattle but every thing else is far in advance of the rest of the world, and that all that is required is industry and economy to realize a fortune in Oregon in a few years at most—and the best place to enjoy life after you have accumulated a fortune.

Business men—make a note of this and remember—MONEY MAKES THE OX GO, and patronize accordingly.

The MAMMOTH OX has been removed to the corner of Morrison and Third streets, where he can be seen through the day and until 10 o'clock at night.

The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

FRIDAY MORNING JUNE 4 1869

Reduction of the Debt

President Grant justly deems that the popularity of his Administration depends almost wholly upon its financial success. He had, therefore, pledged himself to use his best efforts to have the revenue efficiently and honestly collected, and to exercise the greatest economy in expenditures. This policy is telling most favorably on the public debt. The reduction of the debt for the month of May is $3,384,777. This is at the rate of $150,000,000 a year. It is a noticeable fact that while every monthly statement which has been made since Grant became President has shown a reduction of the debt, the last statement shows a larger reduction than any former one. This no doubt arises in part from the fact that the new Administration has now had time to start its measures into operation and to combine a more efficient collection of the revenue with a greater economy of expenditure than the country has known for several years. It may now be relied on that the reduction of the debt will be steady and rapid. We shall certainly pay it at the rate of $75,000,000 to $100,000,000 a year during Gen. Grant's term; and this fact will tell more favorably for the Republican party than anything else possibly could. That party is now strictly carrying out the pledges it made to the people in the Presidential campaign. While the croakers are asserting that the debt of the country can never be paid, that debt is rapidly diminishing. There has been a temporary rise of gold, but it is now declining. The monthly circular of H. Clews & Co, bankers in New York city, issued on the 15th May, says, "the rejection of the Alabama protocol by the Senate, together with the speeches of Senators Sumner and Chandler, have wounded the sensibility of English investors, and, perhaps, excited temporary prejudice against our securities; while the supposed possibility that we might become imbroiled with the European powers on the Cuban question has also induced a decided caution abroad relative to our bonds. The Bank of England apparently is disposed to discourage the speculative importation of foreign securities, and especially American, the recent advance in its rate of discount being mainly attributable to that motive. Under these circumstances, the shipment of bonds to Europe have declined to a nominal amount and quotations on the foreign market rule lower. At home, however, prices have improved in the face of a declining tendency abroad. The purchases of bonds by the Secretary of the Treasury, in furtherance of the provisions of the Sinking Fund, have had a marked effect upon quotations; but rather at home than abroad, where the significance of the operation is perhaps not yet fully comprehended. Owing to the comparative lightness of the supply on the market the withdrawal of $1,000,000 bonds per week has a very direct tendency to strengthen prices, and as these purchases are likely to be continued through a period when money is usually abundant and financial institutions and private investors are free buyers, this result is likely to be still further apparent. The effect of the Secretary's purchases upon the public credit is very directly favorable, in such as they not only reduce the principal in the form of the debt, but also indicate the financial condition of the Government and its good faith in fulfilling all the conditions under which its bonds were issued."

Existing Intelligence.

From Democratic sources we have the highly important piece of information, told with great indignation, that "Gen. Palmer, of Yamhill, is employing Chinamen to do his farm work." This astounding piece of intelligence is copied in all the Democratic papers. The public are not interested in this news as much as it would be to learn the color and nativity of Col. Kelly's or Mr. Grover's kitchen help, or to be informed where Mr. N. Smith's laundress was born and who his grandfather was. On the same principle it must be a matter of great concern to the public to know whether Pat. Hayden's washerwoman, (we are now assuming on the supposition that Ben. has a shirt washed once or twice a year,)—is of Irish, American, or German origin. All these are questions in which it must be supposed that a lively interest is felt by the general public,—questions indeed, which must give rise to the most intense public anxiety. It may be, however, if the public should make themselves too busy about Col. Kelly's or Mr. Grover's private affairs they would be informed that these things were none of their business. Gen. Palmer might also return an answer similarly short, sharp and decisive. Ben. Hayden, even might inform the aforesaid curious public that the color and odor of his garments and the history of his transactions with his washerwoman Mr. raptures of no concern to them so long as he did not cross betwixt the wind and their nobility. And what not all these gentlemen have the better of the argument? Decidedly. In short, we take it that it is nobody's business what class of people General Palmer hires to do his farm work, or what Col. Kelly employs in his kitchen or garden.

AN OPEN QUESTION.—There is no need of misunderstanding the position of the United States on the Alabama question. British journals, supposing that the rejection of the Johnson-Clarendon treaty by our Senate meant war, are now gloating over the alleged fact that we have backed down before British pluck. Their error lies in the supposition that we are anxious to settle the claims and ready to push the controversy to extremes. The key to our action is the fact that we prefer an open question with Great Britain rather than a settlement based on the idea of mere compensation for the ships actually destroyed by the rebel privateer. The American people feel that it will be greatly to their advantage to let the conduct of England in this case stand as a precedent against her. For instance, if Ireland shall rebel against England, we have this precedent for sending ships out of American ports for the Irish service against English commerce, just as ships went out of English ports, in the Confederate service, against American commerce and we will plead the escape of the Alabama, Florida, &c., as our justification for so doing. And we can then do England more damage than England did us. So that she is more interested than we are in having this question settled now.

THE CITY ELECTION.—The affairs of the city have been conducted during the past two years with a sole view to the benefit of the Democratic party. As it is proposed to continue this policy, the Republicans have no other course than to meet their opponents in the coming election on a party issue. The election is near at hand, and it is proper for Republicans to take hold of the matter at once with a view of bringing out good men for the several offices to be filled. Portland is a Republican city, and can never be carried by the Democrats in a fair and quiet election. Last November we had a large majority, and there is no reason why we may not with care in nomination of officers and vigilance in attending the election, succeed two weeks hence by an equal majority. It is time for Republicans to look after this matter. Every one must know that the coming election in this city will have a good deal to do with determining the more important contest in the county and State next year.

In General.

Brick Pomeroy says that unless the Democratic party everywhere boldly pronounces for repudiation it will not come into power "until the year after the Radical party has paid off the debt." This is a bad dilemma, for if it does pronounce for repudiation it will never come into power.

"The Herald declares that 'the income tax should be abolished and it will be.' Bro Pennoyer thinks he is going to make large money out of his paper, and being aristocratically inclined, he wants heavier taxes saddled upon the poor." This from the Yamhill Courier is very much to the point

William Lloyd Garrison has written a long letter to the Independent in advocacy of free trade. He is, however, compelled to admit that the theory is impracticable and unattainable. He asks: "But how is the Government to raise an adequate revenue, except mainly by duties levied on imported merchandise? The people abhor direct taxation, but are willing to be taxed in an indirect manner to an enormous extent. There is, therefore, for the present at least, no other alternative."

The Universal Peace Union at its recent session had a discussion which grew quite warm and even vituperative and violent. The New York Journal of Commerce with great good sense told them that, "So long as some men hurtle red hot words through the air other men will answer them back with bullets. There can be no rude clash of opinions, not followed sooner or later by the shock of arms. Let the Peace Union bridle the tongues of its own advocates as the first step toward stopping the curse of war." This is excellent advice,—much too good and practical for the society to follow.

There are a good many of the late rebel leaders in Tennessee who do not seem disposed to receive Andy Johnson into good fellowship. On the contrary, they, like ex-Senator Foote, cherish their heart-burnings and old grudges against him. Isham G. Harris, who was the secession Governor of the State, opens on the ex-President through a Memphis paper, the following being a sample of the language employed: "He, with a cold-blooded refinement of cruelty which at once stamped him as a monster, inaugurated a policy of hate by causing three-fourths of our citizens to be disfranchised, and enfranchising the negro and endeavoring to place them over their late masters; and now, with an impudence and assurance that is amusing to contemplate, forces himself upon the hospitality of those whose property he has stolen and themselves disgraced."

Comfortable Incomes.

Ten thousand pounds a year was the old-fashioned standard of a comfortable income. But this is greatly exceeded by the incomes of our modern rich men. The Evening Post gives a list of the men residing in the Sixth and Eighth Congressional Districts of the New York who pay an income tax over $100,000:

Alexander T. Stewart has the largest income of any man in the United States. Astor is tolerably well off with his income of more than a million. Bonner has made the cheap newspaper business pay, notwithstanding his weakness for horse flesh. Several of these names represent new men—that is those who have made fortunes since 1860. A. S. Hatch, who is down for an income of $278,261, was a cashier of a Jersey City bank in 1858, on a salary of $1,500 per annum. He is of the firm of Fisk and Hatch, who have sold the bonds of the Central Pacific Railroad, and who also sold an immense amount of Government bonds during the late war. Several of the old rich men have dropped out, either by death, reverses of fortune, or by a division of property among relatives. Not many of the names which would have found a place in such a list twenty years ago are found in the present list.—San Francisco Bulletin.

THE IMMIGRATION of 1869.—The New York Times says:

It is the Germans more than the Irish who are coming to us now in swelling volume. Nearly one-half (11,228) of the emigrants who landed at this port during April, were of the Teutonic race—the best element in Europe on which we have to draw. We have practically annexed Ireland, and are rapidly drawing Canada and Germany to our shores. The Germans are doubly valuable as accessions to our strength, for the reason that they do not stop in our crowded sea-shore cities, but go directly to the districts that need development, and want men to develop them. The German emigrant society report the increase this year about thirty per cent over the arrivals for the same period last year. There are over five times as many Germans landed monthly at this time as there were in 1864 and 1865.

SACRAMENTO IN THE FIELD.—The Reporter of May 19th says:

A great deal has been said in regard to the competition of Chicago and San Francisco for the trade of the continent, the newspaper blowers of each claiming superior facilities for the respective localities. Meantime Sacramentans have been at work quietly but energetically, and while others have been gassing, we have been in active training, so that we take the field in good condition and have commenced to "walk the track." A merchant from Warsaw, Illinois, purchased yesterday of C. E. Reed, grocer, on J street, an invoice of teas, etc., to forward directly to that city. This is but one of the many instances in which our merchants can claim precedence in supplying the Eastern market, and the trade is bound to increase in volume and importance to an incalculable degree.

Here is some interesting information for wine drinkers, supplied by the Boston Journal of Chemistry: "No variety of wine is more dangerous than what is called claret. It is usually a vile mixture. Thousands of gallons are made by allowing water to soak through shavings, and adding thereto a certain proportion of logwood, tartaric acid, and a little alcohol. Good judges can hardly discriminate between this mixture and the genuine article."

DATES TO JUNE 4.

Political Relations.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The Herald's London special states that in an official correspondence between England and America relative to the Virginius affairs, published in February, 1854, Seward expressed a plan for the settlement of the claims, suggesting an international conference. Subsequently Seward desired that the naturalization and San Juan questions should be first settled. These were accordingly concluded in October. Johnson, on behalf of Seward, proposed that the Alabama claims be referred to commissioners, formed of an equal number of British and Americans, with power to call upon an umpire, in case of disagreement, whose decision was to be final. Mr. Stanley responded that the point on which former negotiations broke off was on claims for arbitration. The question of the alleged premature recognition by Her Majesty's Government of the belligerency of the Confederates could not be taken up and thereby cause the Government to depart from the position already taken. Our Solicitor saw no difficulty in so framing a reference that the difficulty might be avoided. The negotiations thereafter proceeded rapidly on the basis of this agreement, by which both nations were binded for the purpose of making things run smoothly. The convention was drawn up and signed in December in England, conceding that the place of meeting was to be in Washington. Subsequently Seward informed Thornton that the contents of the convention were not in accordance with the instructions of Minister Johnson, and the President and his colleagues could not approve certain stipulations which, in their present form, would not receive the sanction of the Senate. Seward informed Thornton that the United States would bring the matter to a satisfactory conclusion, and hoped that the importance of the subject would lead him to modifications that would be acceptable to the Senate. On the English Ministry being changed, Lord Clarendon wrote under date of December 24th, that the British Government was prepared to meet the wishes of the United States, and sent a draft of a convention, by which the negotiations were to be completed on the 4th of January. A second convention was drawn up by Lord Clarendon, that is, the one which has been rejected by the Senate. It was in fact a proposal to cheat the public by a deceptive clause in regard to the recognition of belligerency, and it excited indignant comments here with all fair-minded men, and appears to have fully justified the action of the Senate.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The number of registered voters in Washington is 8,032, a decrease of 5,200 since last year.

In the month of May the Secretary of the Treasury sold $5,000,000 gold, receiving therefor $7,000,000 in currency. He also during that time bought $2,700,000 worth of bonds at a premium of about $700,000 in currency. The receipts at customs for May were $15,000,000; from internal revenue, $20,000,000.

The New York Herald says that President Grant will not support Sumner in his views on the Alabama claims, expressed in his late speech. He calls the speech "good rhetoric, but poor logic." He professes to believe that Sumner himself is not sincere, but is actuated by a desire to overreach Banks and the annexationists, by putting England against all notion of ceding her North American possessions to this country. He holds that if we would not go to war with England, we must conduct negotiations with courteous diplomacy.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The Solicitor of Internal Revenue is in this city on business connected with claims of certain banks to an exemption from taxation, on the ground that a large portion of their capital used by them as brokers in carrying stocks and that they are not therefore liable to taxation.

The Tribune's Washington special says Senator Ross has asked for several cavalry regiments to be started on the Kansas frontier during the summer, for protection against Indians. He thinks their presence will encourage immigration. Secretary Rawlings has given the matter favorable consideration.

Congressman Jencks has been here on business connected with the civil service scheme. He finds all the new Cabinet members and most of the heads of bureaus favorable. The leading idea of the project is strongly encouraged. It is believed that the plan of appointment by competitive examination will be formally and forcibly recommended by all the officials in their annual reports next fall. It has been put in operation by the Commissioner of Patents and to a partial extent by the other heads of bureaus. Thus far it has been of a decided advantage to the service in different departments.

The sub Congressional committee on Retrenchment, consisting of Senator Patterson and Representative Jencks, are now in session in New York engaged in examining the affairs of the Customhouse in that city. They began work today.

The talk among the politicians in this city is to the effect that the Republican State Convention of Pennsylvania, which meets at Philadelphia on the 20th inst., will declare itself on the settlement of the Alabama claim question. The persons moving in the matter are said to support the views of Mr. Sumner.

New York News.

NEW YORK, June 3, 4 o'clock P. M.—Mrs Francis Anne Kemble was among the passengers in the Russia for Liverpool to-day.

The small-pox, which has been raging here for the past three or four weeks, is rapidly apparent ly subsiding under the energetic measures of the board of health. There was only one new case yesterday.

The Tribune claims to have authentic information, and gives details, that 21,000 small arms and twenty-two field pieces have reached the Cuban insurgents by an expedition which left this country lately.

Hon. H. B. Ogden, of Chicago, last evening read a paper before the New York Historical Society upon the Pacific Railroad.

Cuban Affairs.

HAVANA, June 2.—The agitation in the city is partially abated.

Captain General Dulce retired this morning and Don Espinar is acting as Captain General, and will continue to do so until the arrival of General Caballero de Roda.

The city is tranquil, but disorder threatens to break out at any moment, as volunteers are greatly incensed against General Pelle, who has disappeared and whose whereabouts are unknown. Great excitement prevails.

Cincinnati Dispatch.

CINCINNATI, June 3.—Miles Greenwood's foundry and machine shops, corner of Walnut and Canal streets, are now burning. It looks now as if they would all go. The fire commenced in the finishing shops on Walnut street. The buildings are valuable.

The City Council Committee on Southern Railroads met last night in secret session. The ballots showed a tie between Knoxville and Chattanooga for the southern terminus, afterward two favoring Knoxville changed for Chattanooga, but another ballot was not taken. The question will be decided this afternoon.

Adam Stein was struck and killed yesterday by a freight train near Forest, Ohio.

L. G. Boolnock committed suicide near Dayton, also Gilbert Lewis, an insane man at Merrytown, Brown county.

By the fire this morning the shops and mills of Greenwood & Co., hardware manufacturers, Talant & Bray, iron and brass manufacturers, and a four story brick building in the rear, used as a paint and japanning shop, were totally destroyed with their valuable apparatus, material and manufactured articles. The two upper stories, used as finishing shops, were destroyed with machinery, tools and stock. The lower stories of the same with their contents, were damaged by water. Loss $50,000. Insured fully in home companies.

Miscellaneous.

CHICAGO, June 3.—Simonton and Fitch were here to-day, en route for San Francisco.

Richmond papers to-day contain Canby's order for the conduct of the election in Virginia. It fills between three and four columns of the papers.

One of the evening papers says the President and Secretary of State to-day expressed themselves much pleased with the tenor of the speeches made by Morley.

The Tribune's N. Y. special says Gen Wadsworth will introduce at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to-day, resolutions recommending the President to renew the reciprocity treaty with Canada on the ground that it is the speediest way of ultimate annexation. He urges the free navigation of the St. Lawrence as necessary to the growth of the Northwest, and to the freedom of trade and of the fisheries on the British coast.

The owners of the Quaker City expect immediate release of the steamer. They say she will sail on the 16th.

CHICAGO, June 3.—A man named Wm. Landon, was found dead in bed at the Briggs House, yesterday, having blown out the gas instead of turning it on.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

PARIS, June 3.—Gen Dix, the retiring American Minister at the banquet last night, was well received. He regretted that he was compelled to part with his countrymen in Paris. With respect to the United States he said the true mission of that country was to subdue the wilderness and convert it into the abode of civilization. He traced the succession of events leading the Colonies from the valley of the Atlantic first to the banks of the Mississippi, thence to Colorado and California. Still another century would be required to complete the work. The policy of America was not war, but improvement; not devastation, but fraternity; not aggression for acquisition of territory except by friendly arrangement, never by injustice or violence.

LONDON, June 3.—Advices from China report the total shipment of tea thus far at 140,000 pounds.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—A German named Werner Hoelscher, was shot, and it is feared fatally wounded, by a Chinaman at 8.30 last night. Hoelscher was sitting in front of his store, corner Mason and Eddy streets, when the Chinaman, Ah Chow, came out of a doorway leading to the upper story and fired. No cause is assigned for the assault. Ah Chow is under arrest.

James Bennett, the would be murderer and suicide, who shot his wife and attempted to kill himself at the Pacific Melodeon, two weeks since, died to-day.

The following general order has been issued by General Thomas:

Stockton Dispatch

STOCKTON, June 3.—About noon to-day Judge George Bell, a well known citizen of Merced county, while standing in front of J. A. Jackson's warehouse, on Center street, was approached and shot dead by William Dennis, an ex Alderman of this city. It appears that an old feud had existed between the parties, resulting from a lawsuit. Deceased was 48 years of age and a native of Baltimore, Maryland, and came to this country with Stevenson's regiment. He was one of the earliest settlers in Stockton and was first Alcalde of this district. He leaves a wife and a large family of children. Dennis is under arrest.

FROM THE NORTH.

VICTORIA, June 3.—The steamer California arrived at 8 A. M. this morning.

At the Court of Assizes, before Chief Justice Needham, Wm. Lyons, convicted of enticing sailors to desert, was sentenced on two indictments to twelve months imprisonment with hard labor. Also Wm. Shakespeare, for same offence, was sentenced to three months imprisonment with hard labor.

AMERICA THE CRADLE OF THE HUMAN RACE.—Mr. Brasseur de Bourbourg, the eminent French archæologist, has come to the conclusion that the myths of the old Mexican gods and heroes are not only intimately related to those of China, India, Egypt, Persia and Greece, but also anterior to them; that the civilisation of the western hemisphere is not borrowing from the eastern hemisphere, but that, on the contrary, America is the mother of Asia; that the continent which we have been accustomed to call the New World is not merely the oldest physically, as geologists had already taught us to subject, but also the oldest ethnologically and in every way—the cradle of the human race.

Vermont newspapers are discussing the necessity of a bill passed by the State Legislature, compelling railroad companies to build their bridges high enough to clear the heads of brakemen standing erect on the top of freight cars. A good many lives have been lost by reason of low bridges.

PEOPLE SHAKE—not with fear as to the future of Portland, but with the Ague, which can be cured in six hours and no return of the chills or dumb ague or its kindred ills, by using our celebrated and sure South Carolina Ague Cure. It is sold at the reasonable price of $1 00 per bottle. Call at "The Oregon Dispensary" for your Sparco Musicians, for they are all pure, fresh and cheap and will be vouched for by the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in the city. Everybody patronizes the "Oregon Dispensary" in consequence of the above fact, and it requires five assistants to attend to the wants of our patrons. LORYEA & KALLENBERG, 75 First street, Portland.

THE RAILROAD TERMINUS.—By the arrival of the steamer Orothamme, it will be positively known where the Railroad Terminus on the Sound will be established, and before long an army of men, equal to that of the grand Pacific Railroad, will be employed, who will build the road with all possible speed. The Depot, without further doubt, will be established at the well known house of HOUK & PISHEL, No. 91 Front street, where the finest best and most stylish Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods and Dry Goods can always be had, at such low prices that the most crabbed purchasers must be pleased.

OWING to the great demand for Bunnell Hats, we have received another large invoice of them. For a summer hat there is nothing cooler or of prettier style. The Gaufrin, Cubs, Clayton, Barclay, and many others of the latest Styles can be found at

J. C. MEUSSDORFFER & BROS.,

HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.

He respectfully refers to the following

CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. B. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It runs on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

After an address by Henry Claressen, Jr., President of the central organization, giving interesting statistics of the trade, a committee was appointed to nominate permanent officers, and the convention took a recess.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

A Herald's London special says the London Star publishes a highly complimentary article, in which it says the character of Motley itself is a sufficient indication that the United States will treat the pending subject honorably, while the presence of Bright in the English Cabinet, with Gladstone at the head of the Ministry, constitute an equally sufficient guarantee that England loves peace and that a determination to do justice characterizes the Ministry. The Telegraph thinks he will for the present devote himself to the discharge of the ordinary duties of his office. In that capacity he may consolidate that cordial alliance which ought to exist between the two countries. It will be a reproach to England and her politicians and journals if for the sake of pandering to popular prejudice they throw difficulties in the way of a mission of good will and peace, which Motley declares he comes to carry out even to the end. The Times understands that no new demand has been addressed to England. Motley enters on his duties without any prospect of controversy, but at the same time the English Government should examine any new proposals and see if they promise a just and equitable solution. If the neutrality proclamation is made the subject of grievances we are ready to listen to arguments addressed, though it is impossible that any good purpose would be served by raising such a discussion. Notwithstanding the tone of the London press, I have good authority for saying that not one of the newspapers has received the slightest hint or indication of Motley's instructions, which I am assured will in the end be found thoroughly dignified and in a firm American tone.

LONDON, June 2.—In the House of Commons last night, in response to an inquiry, Monsell Under Colonial Secretary, stated that part of the policy of the Government towards its American colonies was to throw the cost of self-defense on each colony. He believed the cession of the Hudson's Bay Co.'s territory would be ratified by Canada. If the scheme was successful the dominion would extend from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Every facility would be given to forward the interest of British Columbia to connect it with that of Canada. Sir Stafford Northcote thought the Canadians able to decide on their own action. He believed the question would be satisfactorily settled. Bury regarded Canada as the future highway to India, and ridiculed any project for annexing Canada to the United States. Adderly regarded the present argument as satisfactory, and while generally disapproving of Government guarantees, yet he would vote for this.

They have at Portland, Me., what is called a "Widows' Wood Society." Who ever heard of a widow that wouldn't?

The new Musical Museum in Boston will be lighted with gas, 2 100 burners being the estimated number required.

Mrs. Dr. Walker has bored a clerkship out of Secretary Cresswell, worth nine hundred dollars per annum.

THE WEST.

The Pacific Railroad income from through traffic, it is estimated, will amount to $60,000,000 annually.

The Health Inspector of San Francisco states that small pox in that city is about closed out. The few cases that do occur are very mild.

The Sacramento Gas Company has contracted for a gas-meter sixty feet in diameter by twenty-two feet in hight, of a capacity of 60,000 cubic feet.

Gambling is the master passion with savages. The Austin Reveille hears of an Indian in that town who stripped himself to the skin to meet the exigencies of poker.

Two women got into a fight at Boise City last week. The weapons used were buckets of water and stove wood. The entertainment cost them $65, which was paid.

A man named George Root was found dead near Boise City on the 28th May. He was walking down a hill and dropped dead. He was from Walla Walla, and was on his way East.

The United States Land Commissioner has instructed the Surveyor General of California to survey the mineral regions in California, along the route of the Central Pacific Railroad.

In one of his addresses at San Francisco George Francis Train said: "I know you don't like what I'm saying, but what do I care? I can go to the White House without the four or five paltry votes of your little State."

The Grass Valley (Cal.) Union, a Democratic paper, referring to the miners' strike at that place strongly hints that unless the miners come to terms Chinese should be employed in their place. It says the mines must be worked,—if not by white men then by Chinese.

We yesterday saw three boys "playing horse," says the Carson Nev. Appeal. A white boy and a little darkey were hitched up together, and a China boy was holding the reins and driving them. What will become of our Constitutional rights if this thing is suffered to continue.

There was a singular case in the Sacramento police court recently. The defendant was charged with rape, and the matter was compromised in Court by the Police Judge marrying the defendant to the prosecuting witness. Immediately after the solemnization of the marriage the prosecuting attorney entered a nolle prosequi.

The Seattle paper says: We beg to state that the rumor concerning the removal of the mill at Tacoma is false. Where it originated we do not know, but it was a topic of conversation around the streets before we paid any attention to it. According to Mr. M. M. McCarver, the mill is to remain, and the bark Jeanium found no difficulty in getting anchorage in front of Tacoma.

If there is an idle able-bodied man in this city, or any other town or camp in Montana, it is his own fault for while fabulous wages are being paid right here for all classes of laborers, there is still a demand for more men, besides the rapidly increasing clamor for "more hands," "more miners," "additional working force," etc., which reaches us from almost all prominent districts of the Territory.

A correspondent of the San Francisco Times, writing of the appearance of the country along the line of the Central Pacific Railroad in the Great Basin, says the less said about scenery in that section the better. He says that the railroad company are considerably ashamed of the poverty of their land there, but they can't help themselves, and he desires to spare their feelings, and not mention the subject when it can be well avoided.

The Supreme Court of Nevada has reprimanded G. G. Berry, Judge of the Fifth District of that State, for unlawfully taking and discharging from the custody of the United States Marshal a prisoner, arrested and held by him under and by virtue of a bench warrant issued out of the United States District Court for the District of Nevada, said prisoner having been indicted by a United States Grand Jury legally impanneled. Berry is a Democratic Judge, and wanted to do something smart.

The San Francisco Herald observes that one of the most hopeful features of the times, for the continued great yield of the precious metals, is the activity of our mechanics and inventors in bringing out new and improved machinery for crushing and amalgamating gold and silver ores. It is safe to say that the year past has given to miners more really practical and useful improvements in milling machinery than the decade preceding. This is saying a great deal; but a visit to the numerous mills in Washoe will discover sufficient facts to bear out this assertion.

The Walla Walla Statesman has a laudatory article on Judge Wyche, in which it says "Our own acquaintance with Judge Wyche dates almost from his first appointment to the bench, and during all the long years that have since elapsed our regard and esteem for the man has been constantly increasing until we have come to regard him as a near and dear friend." We had supposed that this "near and dear friendship" had sprung up since two years ago when the Statesman was abusing Judge Wyche for being an unprincipled Radical officer-seeker, or perhaps since one year ago, when it was sneering at his demagogical efforts to get a Democratic nomination for Congress.

The report of the Mechanics' Institute Fair of San Francisco for 1868, says that the total yield of the mines in California, from 1848 to the present time, is estimated to be fully $900,000,000, and is now averaging $42,000,000 per annum. The total production of silver in Nevada during the past six years is estimated at $60,000,000. The total production of quicksilver in California, from date of the discovery of the first mine, in 1845, up to 1865, amounts to nearly 600,000 flasks, each containing 76½ pounds of metal. The total value of the copper shipped from California during the three years preceding 1867, was $5,566,000, the larger portion of the export going to Great Britain.

FOUR GREAT EVENTS.—One of the greatest events of the century occurred yesterday. The present century has seen these four great events:

I. Morse's invention of the Telegraph.
II. The laying of the Atlantic Cable.
III. The death of Slavery in the United States.
IV. The completion of the Pacific Railway.

In twenty-five years the continent has been spanned by the wires of the telegraph. Ten years ago the lightning began to run beneath the sea. Five years ago the war for freedom ended and slavery died. Yesterday the iron track was made complete from Portland to San Francisco.

The young man of to-day, who has seen all these things accomplished, will have tales to tell to his grandchildren such as no grandsire of our day can summon from the stores of his memory.—N. Y. Post.

That very Democratic journal, the Boston Post, observes: "Two things are observable about Grant—his power of holding his tongue and his grateful remembrance, in his day of prosperity and power, of those early friends who gave him a start when he was poor, seedy, unknown, unnoticed as he is no account socially, politically or professionally. Call it nepotism or what you will, much worse traits than this have been accredited by ruling men."

Widows after marriage are entitled to pension due to date of marriage, even when no claim has been made prior thereto.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS

Brevet Major General Rufus Ingalls has been detailed as member of the New York Refining Board, vice General Reeve, relieved.

The total area of British North America is 3,527,128 square miles, the total population 3,791,237, or a little over one person to the square mile. These figures are convenient when disposed to make a calculation of the "manifest destiny" of the United States.

The St. Louis Democrat states that one of the most persistent and effective means employed by Chicago merchants to win trade away from St. Louis is a free use of the advertising columns of her newspapers. "Chicago business men do not only more special advertising than is done by St. Louis merchants—at a higher rate per square, too—but they keep their business cards constantly standing in the papers."

The St. Louis and Chicago papers are exchanging courtesies with more than the usual "repartee." Here is a specimen from the St. Louis Democrat of the 9th: "Alas for the sneers of Chicago! They are turning to bitter tears. She has sent money to Minnesota grain shippers, and coolly pocketing it, they have shipped their wheat 'down that accursed river.'"

At the recent meeting of Pacific "slopers," in New York city, there were present, among others, Gov. Price, who took possession of California for the United States; Capt. Edward Higgins, who raised the American flag at that time, and J. W. Gregory, who brought the first gold by express to New York, carrying it (?$5,000) across the Isthmus in a box on his back.

The Illinois Legislature have done a harsh and cruel thing (at least some of the Illinois Representatives and Senators in Congress will think so) in passing a law classifying drunkards with idiots and insane people and making provision for the appointment of guardians to take charge of their persons and property. But though harsh, the law may prove salutary in operation. If it works well it should be initiated in other States.

Jules Pierpont, a resident of Wyoming Territory, declares that it will be impossible to operate the Union Pacific Railroad in winter, owing to the storms which pervade the region through which it runs. He says: An experience of many years in the Rocky Mountains, and of these, six winters on the line of the U. P. R. R., convinces me that the present route can never be relied on for a winter route. All the old inhabitants of this country, as well as those freighters and others who have passed through the country for many years past, are of this opinion.

The Suez and Darien Canals—New Routes to the East.

Already our pioneer steamers from California have bridged the Pacific Ocean, and tapped China and Japan on either side, and we need only the Canal across our Isthm

d patriotic soldiers," but it is an outrage Grant, to turn them out of office! The ockton Independent, in an article on this atter says:

Most Californians will remember, that about e year ago a gentleman generally esteemed orthy in Republican circles, and whose gal- ntry in the field and sufferings in the cause ere well attested, was appointed Collector of nternal Revenue for the San Francisco Dis- rict. Republican papers and the rank and e of the A[illegible] universally accepted and in- orsed the [illegible] of Colonel [illegible] and emocrats and Dem[illegible]crats as a [illegible]. CURED AT HOME.
Persons at a distance may be CURED AT A. by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating their symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and what medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage or curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.
Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and have too much to work at their trades. Some are blacksmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, Intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as an advertising physician, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive public by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.
Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 625 Kearney street, corner Commercial, (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.
REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.
Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

Homeward.

It is the time when birds are calling
Each to his mate, his sweet heart mate,
When nuts are sweet with blossoms falling,
And spring is waxing warm and late;
And I no longer can control the fancy
That keeps me from my fair estate.

For in the old familiar places
Both Nature's feet, for me doth fret,
And in the wood's untrodden spaces
Are pathways where my feet are missed,
And little shady flower faces
That watch for me to keep a tryst.

Sweet valleys that the sky stoops over
So tenderly, so tenderly,
And hill sides where the whitening clover
Already tempts the loving bee,
My heart is still your faithful lover,
Remembering charms none else will see.

The robin is my younger brother;
Blackbird and jay, sparrow and wren:
Each year to greet the dear old mother
Come all the children home again:
She calls to me, "I miss no other,
Ah, why so long in haunts of men?"

She knows my heart could never wrong her,
She calls me so, she disarms me,
I feel the old spells growing stronger,
Aside the heavy weight I throw.
I cannot bide in exile longer,
Home to the mead we let me go!

SUGGESTIVE REFLECTION.—"He left a large perty," was the closing sentence of a re- obituary. How many reflections it sug- l! What a pity he was only "to leave. He had taken great delight in collecting it. was all the fruits of his own energy, indus- and good judgment; he had to leave it, went out of the world as poor as he came

He might have taken it with him—or her, he might have sent it forward in adnce. Every dollar given in humble faith scatter the glad tidings of salvation; every of water given to a disciple; every tear pitied sympathy for the suffering; every t of his kindly charity to the needy, would ve been treasure laid up in Heaven. How ich more blessed to go to, than to leave a ge property. The man who is poor in this rld's deeds, but rich in faith, closes his es on this life, and goes to take possession his inheritance. RECOMMENDATIONS
The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:
We, the undersigned, hereby certify that we have used Orton's Preparation for the purpose of destroying the appetite for Tobacco, and can assure those who are suffering from this habit that Orton's Preparation will certainly destroy the appetite for Tobacco quickly and permanently, and without any bad effect upon the health, and without creating an appetite either for the Preparation or any substitute.

From Samuel Ormsby, Easton Journal & Argus:
PITTSBURG, CALIFORNIA, Dec 14, 1868.
For about twenty years I had used Tobacco in its various forms and for the past eight years I had been an inveterate smoker. Becoming satisfied that the excessive use of this narcotic was seriously impairing my health, I determined if possible to check myself of the habit. Hearing of Orton's Preparation for destroying the appetite for Tobacco, I sent to Portland, Me., for a box of the medicine, which I received through the mail on the 17th of November. A month has not elapsed and yet the medicine has effectually relieved me from any yearning or desire to use Tobacco in any form. The Preparation is not more difficult or unpleasant to take than to commence chewing gum. I conscientiously believe the Preparation will have the promised and desired effect in every instance where it is given a fair trial. Upon that belief and from motives of a desire to assist those who wish to break away from the slavish appetite for Tobacco I offer this testimonial.
SAMUEL CESIDLY.

The great popularity of Orton's Preparation has induced unprincipled persons to attempt palming upon the public counterfeit and valueless articles. The price of Orton's Preparation is $2 per box, or three boxes for $5, sent by mail to any part of the country securely sealed from observation, with passage paid on receipt of price.

Horrible Diseases.
How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrific situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, so that they are cared for and cured before it is too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his specialty study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans
Seminal Weakness.
Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse—This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark specks before the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and a feeling of chariots passing about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused ideas, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to former enjoyments, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, blotches, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent freshness. If relief is not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of his complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

Report of the Committee on Public Printing read and adopted. The following is the report of the committee, with a resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Auditor and Clerk is hereby directed to cause to be published in the Daily Herald, five insertions each, all ordinances adopted by the Common Council, upon their approval, such as provide for assessment for street improvements and extensions, appropriations out of the funds and declaring the surplus of assessments, together with such other ordinances the subject matter of which is made public by notice published as required by the provisions of the charter.

To the Hon. Common Council—Gentlemen: Your committee, to whom was referred the matter of city printing, beg leave to report, that they have carefully considered the subject and find from the report of the City Auditor and Clerk (to your committee) herewith presented and made a part hereof, that there has not heretofore been published any act or ordinances that the charter, resolves of the Council, or the public interest did not require. We think there could be a saving to the taxpayers in the publishing of the street improvement ordinances by having them classified similar to the ordinances providing for cross and side walks, and would recommend that the Committee on Streets and Public Property report to the Common Council general ordinances providing for roadways and grading.

The resolution of the Common Council providing for the publication of ordinances, &c., having been amended and there being doubt as to the intent and meaning, we herewith present a resolution providing for the publishing of ordinances, &c., and recommend its adoption. All of which is respectfully submitted.

STREET TRADE.—About 11 o'clock yesterday morning a team from the country, left standing on First street, near Taylor, got frightened at a sprinkler which was passing along, and started off in a very heller skelter manner up the street, as if they had suddenly remembered that they had left something at home and had started back for it in a hasta." Just at the junction of First and Taylor, they ran into the same or another sprinkler and broke two of its wheels, leaving one of them looking as though the Gods had put it through one of their tortures. The grind slowly but grind exceedingly small. Rushing on and over this obstruction, they next pitched very nearly into a big butcher's wagon, on the next corner. They succeeded in turning the thing entirely over and breaking the tongue, but their speed was too much for them and they could not stop. Damage probably twenty or twenty-five dollars.

CUSTOM HOUSE.—The Commercial says: "We know that Collector Hinman has lately received a letter from Judge Olney, who was, at the time of writing, in Washington, which states that Mr. J. W. Holman, who has been appointed Superintendent of the erection of the Custom House, etc., in place of him (Judge Olney) will arrive on the present steamer, and will commence the work in early and good earnest." Mr. Holman did arrive by the steamer of last evening, as indicated in the above.

A PASSENGER BY THE FIRST STEAMBOAT.—We met yesterday with Mr. Sturgiss, of Clackamas county, an old gentleman of seventy-one years, who says he was a passenger by Robert Fulton's steamboat upon her first trip from New York to Albany. He was then but a young lad but he remembers with distinctness many of the incidents of the trip—the jeering crowd left standing upon the wharf as the Clermont steamed away at the rate of about four miles an hour; the excited and jubilant Fulton and his guests, the clanging of the awkward machinery, the amazement of the people whom they passed on the upward trip and many other things connected with this voyage which has since proved one of them as remarkable and important in the commercial history of the world. The Clermont the first steamboat to make the trip from New York to Albany, was built in 1807, and started from New York on her trial voyage on the 7th of August. She made something over five miles an hour on the passage up and fully five miles per hour in descending the river. She was afterwards lengthened from one hundred and thirty, to one hundred and forty feet, and others soon altered to remedy some apparent defects. In the following year, 1808, she was put upon the Hudson, to make regular trips between New York and Albany and from that day onward the Hudson was never without its steamboats. Mr. Sturgiss has lived to know that the trial that day made, headed to the construction of floating palaces on rivers and oceans equal to elegance and splendor to anything ever built on land, and with a speed of 18 to 22 miles an hour as against the snail's pace of the Clermont. Within Mr. Sturgiss' memory steam and steamboats have revolutionized the whole commerce of the world, as no other agents could have done.

PERSONAL.—Gen. Woods arrived in this city from Salem, yesterday. He is en route to Eastern Oregon to inspect the Dalles and Boise military road, but will not at present go further, probably, than Canyon City. He will leave for the Dalles this morning.

Rev. Carter, of the Corvallis Gazette, came down by the afternoon boat yesterday.

Capt. "Baz" Miller, one of the oldest steamboat men of the upper Wallamet, took passage last evening, with his family, by the steamer Geo. S. Wright for a trip to Victoria and Puget Sound. Capt. Baz is said to be one of the men who dug out the channel when the Wallamet river was made, and he has been ever since engaged in navigating its devious and shallow ways. He has worked and eat and slept so long on a steamboat that he can hardly walk on land without a wheel to turn or a setting pole to hear as long with. During the last fifteen years he has seldom been below Oregon City, and he never been to sea. Having helped to work up one of the worst rivers to a navigable condition, he thinks he is now entitled to a bit of a play spell and a ride upon "the finest body of water in the world."

FROM WASHINGTON AND YAMHILL.—Jamison's Express arrived last evening from McMinnville, bringing the following items of news: The dwelling house of a Mr. Purden, who lives on Fox creek, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday. Cause of fire unknown.

Ten families from Yamhill county, among whom was Gen Palmer's, passed through Forest Grove yesterday on route to the Nehalem valley where they purpose to settle. There are twelve or fifteen families already there.

The proprietors of the McMinnville water ditch are slinging dirt at a great rate, employing ten or twelve teams in plowing and scraping and a corresponding number of men.

Mr. Underwood, Postal Agent, came down with the express. He has been spending several days in traveling through the counties of Polk, Yamhill, and Washington, endeavoring to ascertain just what are the postal needs of the west side.

A QUESTION.—While so many people are rushing off to the Sound to look for the railroad terminus, would it not be pertinent to suggest that they would do quite as well to stay in Oregon and hunt up the terminus here? There is certain to be a terminus to this end of the road before another one is wanted. As we look at the matter, the "terminal advantages" are rather more numerous in Oregon than at Puget Sound, just at present, or than they will be, say for ten or twelve years.

THE RAILROAD TERMINUS.—By the arrival of the steamer Oriflamme, it will be positively known where the Railroad Terminus on the Sound will be established, and before long an army of men, equal to that of the grand Pacific Railroad, will be employed, who will build the road with all possible speed. The Depot, without further doubt, will be established at the well known house of KOHN & FISHEL, No. 91 Front street, where the finest, best and most stylish Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods and Dry Goods can always be had, at such low prices that the most crabbed purchasers must be pleased.

THE MAMMOTH OX!

TO THE PEOPLE OF OREGON: LOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS!

F. M. MORRIS AND W. C. AVERY,

BOTH OLD OREGONIANS AND HAVING, NO doubt,

THE LARGEST OX IN THE WORLD!

propose to the people of Oregon to take this Monster OX to the Atlantic States and exhibit the same as an Oregon production, and before leaving the State they wish every man, woman and child to see and in order to give them an opportunity they will exhibit him in the principal towns on the Willamette, for the sum of 25 cents—children half price. Their object in doing this is to raise the necessary cash to pay transportation. With the exhibition they will have a tendency to wake up the people of the Eastern States to realize the fact that there is such a place as Oregon on the Pacific Slope, and that not only large cattle but every thing else is far in advance of the rest of the world; and that all that is required is industry and economy to realize a fortune in Oregon in a few years at most, and the best place to enjoy life after you have accumulated a fortune.

Business men—make a note of this and remember MONEY MAKES THE MARE GO, and patronize accordingly.

The MAMMOTH OX has been removed to the corner of Morrison and Third streets, where he can be seen through the day and until 10 o'clock at night.

☞ W. C. Avery will also have a supply of MRS STAPP'S THORACIC BALSAM on hand. m27dtf

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands high price, and in the markets of the Interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 3 1869.

Cattle and Sheep.

During the depression of the grain market, which has continued for the space of several months, the business of Oregon has been very much relieved by the money brought into the State by the sale of live stock. The prices paid have usually been good, and the demand has been general and steady. Many good horses have been purchased for the California market, and from the data received we should judge that not less than 30,000 head of cattle have been purchased in a spring and driven away. At Jacksonville alone states that fully 15,000 head have been driven through that place. The amount of money distributed through the State by this means cannot fall below $500,000, and when we take into the calculation the sheep and swine purchased of our farmers and ranchmen, the amount must be very considerably augmented. This source of revenue has sustained business remarkably well, notwithstanding the depression of the grain market. But it is becoming more difficult to obtain live stock, especially in the Wallamet valley, and it will probably be soon necessary to bring cattle from beyond the Cascade mountains in order to supply the market of Portland. It is understood that cattle are yet quite abundant in some of the eastern counties and in the Yakima valley in Washington Territory.

The consumption of cattle in Portland is now from two hundred to two hundred and fifty head per month. It therefore requires something near three thousand head a year to supply the city. The consumption of sheep is from eight hundred to one thousand head per month, or fully ten thousand head a year. These are becoming very considerable items in the live stock market of Oregon. Portland distributes through the country not less than one hundred thousand dollars per annum for beef and mutton consumed mainly by her own population. This is an important item in the trade of the country. The farmers and stock growers who live near the city might have the advantage in this market if they would only make it a point to keep up the supply. But they allow the supply to become exhausted, rendering it necessary for drovers to go to the head of this valley, to the Umpqua, and even beyond the Cascade mountains, to obtain meat for our own consumption.

Alaska.

We have received the first three numbers of the Alaska Times, the latest one dated May 14th. The Times is a weekly paper, neutral in politics, and somewhat pompously claims to "represent more territory than any other newspaper in the world." Other "Alaska" papers have heretofore been published in San Francisco, but the Times is published at Sitka and really makes a creditable appearance. It demands a civil government for Alaska, and says that the military authorities, though performing their duties well, cannot afford adequate protection and redress to citizens. Several murders have been committed since the territory was ceded to the United States, but as no courts have been established, the murderers have left the country. The Times asserts that the revenue department is losing twice as much as it would cost to maintain a territorial government, and says: "Give Alaska officers clothed with authority to see and have the laws put in execution, the horde of smugglers now to be seen in these waters would soon die, leave, or trade in conformity with the laws of our country." The Alaskans are also calling for a direct mail from San Francisco. Slight difficulties occasionally occur with the Indians, but no serious troubles are apprehended. Small quantities of gold are continually found in many places. A new mill capable of producing 5,000 feet of lumber per day is building near Sitka and is nearly finished. The Times predicts that in a short time the National Government will be well paid for the amount expended in the purchase of Alaska.

COMMERCIAL WARFARE.—While the people of the United States and Great Britain are engaged in a commercial warfare which threatens to involve the two countries in a war, it is well enough to remember that for no small share of the damage inflicted upon American commerce our country is indebted to the stupid ignorance and official sluggishness of the Tite Barnacle who ruled the Navy Department. More than once, information was laid before Mr. Welles which would have enabled any Secretary of ordinary discretion and energy to head off these cruisers, and especially the Alabama, by dispatching fast sailing steamers to the points for which that sea rover was known to be aiming. The Secretary did send vessels to intercept her, but always too late. He seemed to know nothing of navigation or geography, or even that the world was round, and his daily official career throughout the rebellion was an endless series of blunders, which neutralized the skill and valor of our sailors, made the service contemptible and inflicted a loss upon our maritime interests which the youngest of us may not live to see wholly repaired. It surprises no one that he closed his official experience with sending a public ship, drawing eleven feet of water, to transport his household effects to his home on the Connecticut river—with a bar at its mouth carrying only six feet of water at the top of the tide. It was in the same skillful way that he suffered the Alabama to cost somebody an hundred million of dollars.

The Helena (Montana) Herald prints a portion of a letter relating to the North Pacific Railroad, written by ex-Congressman Windom, of Minnesota. The letter is dated New York, April 23d. The writer says: "We failed to get the aid from the Government which ought to have been granted, but the 'North Pacific Road' is an enterprise which cannot fail. The land grant it now has will build it before many years. From all I can learn of the character of the lands along its line, 25,605 acres per mile, they will much more than pay for the road when it is completed. I am now here attending some meetings of the company. They assure me that they will commence work this year."

The Herald wants to know if the only blessing the people of Oregon are to derive from the Federal Government hereafter, is to be the blessing of taxation. Perhaps that paper does not know that the Federal Government is expending a great deal more money in Oregon than it is deriving from taxes here. Yet such is the fact. Let this be remembered when people are heard croaking about our Federal taxes.

The shooting at Vancouver we suppose is in accordance with the advice of Ben Hayden, who in all his speeches exhorts the Democracy to resort to bullets, if necessary, to vindicate their principles and gain a triumph. Why will respectable Democrats encourage such a ruffian in making speeches.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Californians Starting Home.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Senator Casserly, Hon D O Mills, S W Simonton, G K Fisk and other prominent Californians left here yesterday by rail for San Francisco.

Miscellaneous.

CHICAGO, June 2.—The Tribune's special says a proclamation has been issued for the sale of twenty-five thousand acres of land at Denver, Colorado, beginning September 13th.

The reports of the crop prospects, North and West, show that the corn will be delayed by the rains, in many instances there has been replanting. The wheat and fruit are excellent, except in a few localities where the growth has been somewhat broken down by the storms.

The Tribune's special says the owner of the Quaker City will bring suit against Collector Grinnell for damages for detaining his steamer, at the rate of $1,500 per day.

All foreign steamers arriving to-day brought unusually large cargoes, chiefly of dry good and hardware. The English papers received to-day say that the recent hostile feeling between England and America caused the loss of £30,000 in the depression of financial and commercial values.

Private letters from Paris say the agitation concerning the election is greater than is represented by the press. One hundred and forty nine persons were arrested in three days. Many others were threatened.

The Springfield, Ill., Register describes a remarkable shower of snakes near Taylorville, on last Sunday. Every ditch and pool in the prairie was found to be full of, nondescript creatures eighteen inches and two feet long, and about three quarters of an inch in diameter. The tail was flat like an eel, without fins, the head shaped somewhat like an eel. The eyes small and the ears simply orifices. Immediately behind the head on each side is a flappu like a turtle about an inch long including the limb which has a perfectly formed joint. The color is that of a snake, dark and blue. The number of these creatures is beyond estimate. They swam in every puddle of water. They swam entirely under water or with head or a portion of the body above the surface. They are perfectly harmless. Boys take them from the pools by the hundreds and bring them to town for inspection. The story is vouched for by numbers who have seen this phenomenon.

Foreign Relations.

NEW YORK, June 2.—The Herald's London special says Motley, it is understood, to-day addressed a letter to Lord Clarendon, informing him of his arrival in London, officially, and requesting the appointment of a day for the presentation of his credentials.

As the Prince of Wales holds a levee to day, tomorrow has been named as the most fitting time for the ministerial introduction.

Moran, U. S. Charge d'Affairs, attended the levee and was presented.

The burden of the newspaper articles published here to-day, on the subject of Mr. Motley's arrival, is generally to the effect that the writers find in his speech at Liverpool, indications of the spirit or the instructions given by President Grant.

The Pall Mall Gazette boasts that America has backed down before British pluck, and that under these circumstances the arrival of a new minister is of small importance, and the best result they anticipated from Motley's mission is that his duties will afford him sufficient leisure to prosecute his historical studies.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

PARIS, June 2.—The Herald's special says a splendid farewell American banquet was given by Gen. Dix at the Grand Hotel, to night. Between 300 and 400 were present. Mr. Washburne, the General's successor, and Messrs. Burlingame and Bullock, of Massachusetts, were guests. Mr. Cowdin, of New York, presided.

General Dix, in a response to the toast of his health, delivered an eloquent speech. Thanking the assembly for the compliments paid, he reviewed the past progress and referred to the future prospects of their common country. Alluding to the completion of the Pacific Railroad, he said it as if the prophet's dream, and he thought of Columbus, by opening up a western passage from Europe to the Indies in the present century, little more was required to complete the work. After alluding to the ambition of the American people, the General said, we may trust in Providence for the continuance of our national prosperity, if in our intercourse with foreign States we conform to those rules, international rights and obligations which have received the sanction of the civilized world, depending only that the same maxims of reciprocal justice shall be sacredly respected by others; that the high seas shall be recognized as a common pathway, and that nations shall be free from all pretensions of superiority or arbitrary control. In relation to France he said there had existed between America and France from the earliest period a strong bond of affinity which should never be broken. France came to our aid at a trying period in the infancy of the country, and during the very throes of the national question she rendered essential service to Washington by the swords of her soldiers, Rochambeau and Count De Grasse, while Lestrange, Ruxton and Paul Jones at sea unsheathed their sword in the cause of Independence. Owing to this the misunderstandings between the two countries for nearly a century have been few, trifling and brief in duration, leaving no rankling feeling or resentments behind. After an eloquent tribute to the generosity of Napoleon, the worth and virtue of the Empress, General Dix referred to the qualifications of his successor, Mr. Washburne.

Toasts were subsequently made by Berlingame, Washburne, Bull and others.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—Earthquake waves are recorded on the tidal wave sheet, at Fort Point, as having occurred between 6:30 and 9 A. M., yesterday.

The auction sale of State tide lands commenced to-day at Platt's Hall, under the supervision of the State Board of Commissioners.

It is reported that Michael Reese, the millionaire, was married last Saturday, and that they leave for Europe soon. Reese receives congratulations, but he will neither admit nor deny the charge.

Stockton Dispatch.

STOCKTON, June 2.—To-day the Eureka Fire Engine Company had their 16th anniversary picnic at Gould Water Grove, about two miles from the city. A large number of our citizens were in attendance.

Company A of the 8th U. S. Cavalry passed through this city this morning, en route for San Francisco.

On and after to-day the steamers of the California Steam Navigation Co. leave this city for San Francisco at 2 P. M.

The San Joaquin Valley Bank and the Bank of Stockton each declare a dividend of one per cent. on the capital stock, payable after the 15th inst.

NEVADA.

VIRGINIA, June 2.—A further donation for the Gold Hill sufferers, amounting to $103 50, was yesterday received from J B E. Cavallier, of San Francisco.

Daniel Miller, who fell down a shaft in the Savage mine on Saturday, and broke his back, is still living, but no hopes are entertained of his recovery.

The total contributions for the Gold Hill sufferers aggregates $10,311 50, of which California contributed $3,328 50.

A money and business report from San Francisco says: "In general markets business continues remarkably dull. There is nothing doing comparatively, though there never has been as large surplus of goods as at present, nor have prices ever been so low. Everybody appears undecided on this question of currency, the general impression being that some change in the present state of affairs is inevitable. The auctioneers are particularly loud in their complaints of inability to sell at any price for cash."

One-third of the revenue of Great Britain for 1868 was derived from customs. The total amount of revenue thus raised was £23,000,000, or nearly $115,000,000. This is the country which is cited as an example of free trade.

The "Alabama."

Now that the controversy over the claims for damages inflicted on our commerce by the Anglo-rebel ship Alabama is occupying so large a share of attention both in this country and Europe, it may not be uninteresting to present a brief statement of the circumstances under which the Alabama sailed on her predatory cruise. They are stated in the following manner by the New York World. There were many aggravations in the affair, in the spirit shown toward Mr Adams, and in the evident desire to thwart him after making the most unreasonable requirements of him in the way of proof.

She was built at Laird's ship yard, near Liverpool, on a contract with agents of the Confederates. While fitting out for sea in the port of Liverpool, Mr. Adams, June 13, 1861, called the attention of Earl Russell to her as intended to be a rebel cruiser; two days after the note of Mr Adams was referred, for report of the facts, six days intervened, and the commissioners said the vessel was intended for war purposes and for a foreign government, but detention of the suspicious craft was refused, subsequently, Mr. Adams furnished evidence of her true character in shape of depositions, accompanied by the written opinion of one of the Queen's counsel that it "appeared difficult to make out a stronger case of infringement of the Foreign Enlistment act," and again urged the arrest of the vessel, this second application was referred to the Queen's advocate for opinion, but his illness so long delayed action that, when orders were given to arrest, the vessel had escaped unarmed from the Port of Liverpool, on a pretended pleasure excursion, without a customs register or clearance, off Point Lunas she received from Liverpool an addition to her crew of 50 men, and steered directly to the Azores, where she was joined by a British bark, bringing from Liverpool a part of her guns and stores, and by a British steamer, also direct from Liverpool, with Captain Semmes and fifty additional men, with the remainder of her guns. Semmes then assumed command, ran up the Confederate flag, and off she steamed on her cruel mission. The crew of the Alabama were enlisted in Laird's ship yard. Earl Russell attributes her escape to the early treacherous communication to Laird, or the Confederate agents of the Cabinet secret that her seizure was to be ordered. Attorney General Roundell Palmer, however, stated that the illness of the Queen's advocate, and the subsequent delay of his consulting opinion, was the real cause. Whatever may have been the true secret of the escape of the Alabama, it is easy to see that the association of the Lairds with her was something more than trade and commerce. It was war, begun and carried on from a Birkenhead ship yard.

For many months Earl Russell and English publicists attempted to cover the transaction by the case of the Santissima Trinidada, but at last, under the fierce cannonading of Mr. Adams, they broke down utterly, and freely admitted the whole affair "a scandal and reproach." But yet the British Government refused to be responsible for the acts of parties who fit out a ship, send her to a port out of its jurisdiction, and there man, equip, arm and commission her as a belligerent cruiser. As late as October, 1865, Earl Russell declined to make reparation and compensation for the captures made by the Alabama, or to refer the subject to any foreign State, for the reason that the claim raised the question of the due diligence or the good faith and honesty of the Government in maintaining the neutrality it proclaimed, and implied a misconstruction of the Foreign Enlistment act on the part of the crown lawyers. Both these points have since been yielded.

Our Montana neighbors are pleasing themselves over the assertion that they produced $15,000,000 in treasure last year.

FAREWELL BENEFIT.—To-night will afford probably the last opportunity which the theater-going folks will have for some time, to see anything of the legitimate drama. Messrs. Vinson and Barry will make their farewell appearance, intending as we understand, to go below on the next steamer, while Mr Bates does not expect or wish to organize another company till fall. Thus we shall be, for a considerable time without any amusement of the theatrical kind. The bill offered for this evening is a first rate one, and aside from the personal merits of the beneficiaries, should draw a full house. There have been very few better pieces of acting in this city than Mr. Vinson's Grimaldi, or Mrs. Bates' Violet; while as Thomas in "Wedlock is a ticklish thing," Mr. Barry is just in his element. Everybody who can enjoy pathos or humor should attend the benefit to-night.

SODA FOUNTAIN.—In the way of a soda fountain, Mr. Chas. Woodard has the most elegant affair ever set up in this city—one that he brought back with him from the East. It is a marble case, in which are set separate cans containing the various creams and syrups for flavoring purposes, and others for soda or mineral water. These are drawn off through fancy faucets which look not unlike the musical stops of the modern organs. The interior of the case serves also as an ice safe, so that the cans containing the fluids set, practically, in a big cake of ice and the drinks come forth as cool and refreshing as if drawn from an Alaskan iceberg. We mention the article as a curiosity in its way, but the thirsty may find upon any hot day that its principal beauty consists in its practical utility.

CORNER STONE CEREMONIES.—The laying of the corner-stone of the M. E. Zion Church, at this city, will take place at 2 o'clock this afternoon, on North Third street, between B and C. The following will be the programme of exercises: Introductory lesson, by Rev. I. Dillon; singing by the choir; prayer by Rev. Dr. Atkinson; lesson, by the pastor, Rev J L. Lodge, and Trustees; lesson, by the Rev. Dr. Lindsley; address, by Rev. J. F. DeVore; contributions; list of articles deposited, read by Rev. Dr. Wythe; laying of corner stone, by Rev. J. F. DeVore; prayer, by Rev. I. Dillon; doxology, by the choir; benediction by Rev. Dr. Wythe. Persons desirous of contributing articles for deposit in the corner stone are respectfully invited to present them, to-day, to the beginning of the ceremonies.

FROM SALEM.—We learn from the Unionist that full committees on celebration of the 4th have been appointed.

A band of two hundred cattle passed through town Tuesday evening, bound for Eastern Oregon.

Dr. B. F. Bond of Salem, a graduate of the Wallamet Medical College, has been appointed physician for the Warm Springs reservation.

The river has fallen eight inches since last Saturday, and it is expected that the larger boats will soon be compelled to stop running.

A special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Oregon Central Railroad Company, will be held at the office of the company in this city on the 8th inst.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVALS.—Among the passengers by the Continental, which arrived last evening, were the following distinguished personages: Rt Rev Bishop Morris, who comes here to supply the place made vacant by the death of Rt Rev. Bishop Scott; Rev Wm G Eliot, the father of Rev. Mr Eliot, the pastor of the 1st Unitarian church of Portland, and Miss Dorothy Dix, the celebrated philanthropist. The two reverend gentlemen mentioned are accompanied by their families. Bishop Morris will reside here, while the others are here upon a visit only.

WASHINGTON GUARD'S PICNIC.—The Washington Guard's annual excursion and picnic will take place to-day. The picnic will be held at Pleasant Grove. The steamer Mer, will take the excursionists, leaving the wharf at the foot of Morrison street at 9 A. M., 12 M and 2 P. M. The return trips will be made at 5 and 7 P. M. Tickets for gentlemen $1, and for ladies 50 cents. The Mechanics' Brass Band will accompany the 9 o'clock boat and will furnish the music during the day at the grounds.

GETTING LIVELY.—Business in the Recorder's court has shown a marked improvement this week, if the number of cases may be taken as a criterion. There were ten cases on Tuesday and two yesterday, in most of which "drunk" figured either in the charge or in the testimony. Election time is coming on, and free whisky is beginning to run more likely than usual. That's what's the matter.

RECOVERED.—We are glad to state that "Pathfinder" has recovered from his late severe illness and is all right again. The death of this fine animal would have been a great loss to the State. Several of his colts will be in town Saturday, and Mr Smith wishes all those interested in "Pathfinder 2d" stock to take a look at them and judge for themselves.

MOUNTS THE TRIPOD EDITORIAL.—The Democrat says that Mr C B Bellinger succeeds Mr Abbott in the Albany Democrat, as editor. We shall hope that this time Mr Bellinger has selected a position where he can "ring" rules the hour.

SOLDIERS FOR SAN JUAN.—The steamer Fairoaks brought over yesterday a detachment of U. S. soldiers for San Juan Island. They went by the steamship Wright last evening, under command of Capt. Nickerson.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.—Messrs Parrish & Atkinson advertise the disposal, on a considerable number of parcels of real estate for sale. Persons wishing to purchase might do well to consult them.

SAILED.—The steamship Geo. S. Wright, Laughlin, Commander, sailed at half past six o'clock last evening for Victoria and Puget Sound ports, with a fair freight and a number of passengers.

JUDGE DEADY.—A telegram from Jacksonville last evening announces the arrival of Judge Deady at that place, and that he will start, on his return trip to Portland on Friday next.

FOUND.—On Sunday last, a Fur Cape. The owner can hear of it on calling at the office.

PEOPLE SHARE—not with fear as to the future of Portland, but with the dyer, which can be cured in six hours and no return of the chills or dumb ague or its kindred ills, by using our celebrated and sure South Carolina Ague Cure. It is sold at the reasonable price of $1 00 per bottle. Call at "The Oregon Dispensary" for your Scarce Medicines, for they are all pure, fresh and cheap and will be vouched for by the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in the city. Everybody patronize the "Oregon Dispensary" in consequence of the above fact, and it requires five assistants to attend to the wants of our patrons. LORYEA & KALLENBERG,
